TRAVEL THE WORLD THROUGH ENGLISH!

Join us for an exciting week-long English immersion summer school where learners explore different countries, cultures, animals, landmarks, traditions, and stories while developing their English communication skills through engaging, hands-on experiences.

Designed specifically for Grade 1 learners, this camp combines the trusted Cambridge English approach to create a fun and meaningful language-learning journey.

ENGLISH SKILLS FOCUS

Throughout the week, participants will strengthen:

- Speaking & Conversation Skills: Build confidence expressing ideas, answering questions, and participating in discussions.
- Reading & Vocabulary Development: Discover new words, themed texts, stories, and global topics.
- Writing & Creative Expression: Create travel journals, postcards, mini-books, and country projects.
- Listening & Comprehension: Follow instructions, understand stories, and engage in interactive activities.
- Presentation & Communication Skills: Share discoveries, projects, and learning with peers.

A NEW DESTINATION EVERY DAY

Each day, participants will "travel" to a different part of the world and explore:

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Famous landmarks | Food and traditions |
| Geography and cultures | Art and creative projects |
| Stories and folktales | Animals and natural wonders |

All while learning and using English in authentic, meaningful contexts.
