

- Tohoku - Cambridge English Day

Brought to you by West Japan Cambridge Centre JP176,
Cambridge University Press & Assessment Japan, and ELSA Japan

For teachers, school leaders, and education partners in the Tohoku region.

Venue

Sunday, 26th of July 2026

Doors Open: 10:00 am

Sendai Ikuei Gakuen High School – Tagajo Campus
〒985-0853 5 Chome-6-1 Takahashi, Tagajo, Miyagi
※ Participants can also join via Zoom live streaming.

Programme

*This is a free event.
Please register to attend in-person or online.*

10:00 Doors Open

10:30 Opening Introduction and Welcome by Mr. Malcolm Harding, Managing Director, West Japan Cambridge Centre JP176

1	10:40 - 11:20	Overview of Cambridge Assessment An introduction to Cambridge English Qualifications, the CEFR pathway, and how Cambridge assessments support learners. [English]	Mr. Riaz Donaldson Cambridge University Press & Assessment
2	11:20 - 12:00	CELTA Workshop A practical teacher development workshop exploring communicative teaching ideas and classroom techniques inspired by CELTA training. [Japanese and English]	Ms. Chiho Nakagawa Vice Principal Laurus International School of Science
3	12:00 - 12:45	Lunch & Networking An informal opportunity to meet fellow educators, exchange ideas, and discuss English education across the Tohoku region.
4	12:45 - 13:00	Preparation Centre Benefits A short session on the advantages of becoming a Cambridge English Preparation Centre, including support, resources, and learner pathway benefits. [English]	Mr. Malcolm Harding Managing Director West Japan Cambridge Centre JP176
5	13:00 - 13:15	ELSA English for Schools Introduction An introduction to the exciting collaboration between West Japan Cambridge Centre and ELSA Japan, and the benefits it can bring to teachers and students. [Japanese]	Mr. Kazuya Takahashi Director of Education Market, ELSA Japan
6	13:15 - 14:15	How Cambridge English and Cambridge Teaching Qualifications Can Support You and Your School's English Language Journey An informal opportunity to meet fellow educators, exchange ideas, and discuss English education across the Tohoku region. [Japanese]	Ms. Chiho Nakagawa , Vice Principal, Laurus International School of Science Moderated by Ms. Tomomi Katsuki West Japan Cambridge Centre Consultant

14:15 - 14:30 Round-up and Farewell A brief closing session to review key points, answer final questions, and share next steps.

Book Look & Materials Showcase

Throughout the day, participants can browse Cambridge English books, sample papers, preparation materials, teacher resources, and classroom support materials.

Register for the event here:

<https://cambridgecentre.jp>
east.japan@cambridgecentre.jp

Where your world grows

CAMBRIDGE
English

Authorised Exam Centre